Dear Pastor,

The above named student(s) has/have applied for admission to Cambridge Christian Academy. Cambridge Christian Academy endeavors to look at an individual from an academic, spiritual and personal character basis. You have been asked by the family to help us in this process. Please complete this form and return it to us as soon as you are able. Your responses will be held in the strictest of confidence.

Cambridge Christian Academy is housed at St. Paul's United Methodist Church. Children from many different denominational backgrounds will comprise the student body of the school, but we do seek families who are committed to Christian education and high academic standards.

Cambridge Christian Academy admits students of any race, color, sex or ethnic origin to all the rights and privileges of the school. Our goal is to serve the entire Christian community of the Middle Shore.
